

Delta Omicron Foundation, Inc.

Educational Grant Application Information

The Delta Omicron Foundation Grant Program provides financial assistance toward tuition for undergraduate and graduate college students who are members in good standing with the Delta Omicron Music Fraternity and who are pursuing a degree in music-related fields (performance, music education, composition, music therapy, music business, or music history).

One grant is available for a music graduate of Ewha Women's University in Korea who is enrolled for study in the United States. All grants are funded through donations and by bequests provided by current and deceased Delta Omicron members.

The application form and information follow this introductory page. Application materials should be sent to:

Dr. Jonny H. Ramsey, President
Delta Omicron Foundation, Inc.
2500 Potomac Parkway, Denton, Texas 76210
jramsey18@verizon.net

The applicant must complete the statement of current financial need, a resume in the application. A letter of recommendation from a faculty member or private music teacher is required. That recommendation should include information of the applicant's financial need if shared by the applicant.

Applications must be received by June 18, 2025.

Grants will be awarded over the summer and are disbursed in the fall (August or early September). Grants will be awarded only toward tuition and will be sent directly to the financial officer of the institution specified. Proof of enrollment from the institution will be required before the grant is disbursed.
